

TRANSFER POLICY

As a basis of academic evaluation, the applicant is required to have taken the following courses (or equivalent) at their institution(s) before submitting a transfer application to the College of Engineering:

- College Composition I [COMP 01.111]
- Calculus I and Calculus II [MATH 01.130 and MATH 01.131]
- College Chemistry I [CHEM 06.100] (See notes below)
- Introductory Mechanics (Physics I, Calculus-based) [PHYS 00.220]
- Computer Science and Programming (for ECE & ME majors) [CS 04.103]
- Introduction to Scientific Programming (for CEE and ChE majors) [CS 01.104]

Notes:

1. Students interested in BME are required to complete the courses mentioned above, plus College Chemistry II and Physics II. A computer programming course is not required.
2. Students interested in ChE are required to complete the courses mentioned above, plus College Chemistry II, and an additional 4-credit Life Sciences course.
3. Students interested in ECE are required to take another approved Science lab class instead of College Chemistry I. Contact the ECE department for more details.

Students who have completed the required courses with the following grade point average (GPA) will be accepted into the program:

- BME, ChE, ECE, and ME: A GPA of 3.5 or better, in both the required courses and cumulative GPA.
- CEE: A GPA of 3.3 or better, in both the required courses and cumulative GPA.

All other acceptances will be based on seat availability, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 required. Acceptable courses up to a maximum of one-half the required credits towards graduation can be transferred into the College. Only grades of "C" or better are acceptable for transfer. All courses must be approved as equivalent to Rowan University courses. Pass/Fail grades are not acceptable for transfer.

Students transferring from New Jersey two-year or four-year institutions should refer to the following webpage to compare course equivalencies between Rowan University and these schools:

<http://www.rowan.edu/provost/registrar/courseequiv.html>.

Transfer applications should be received by March 1 for the following Fall Semester, and November 1 for the following Spring Semester. A decision will be deferred until the end of the semester if a required course(s) is in progress at time of application. Applications are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Any exceptions to the above requirements must be approved by the Dean's Office.
